

Clyde hurts when his pack hurts, when his lover hurts, but is this dark pain proof of something more, something deeper? Clyde is the Alpha of the Lunar pack, the leader, the one in charge. But when his lover, Sam, turns their sexy next door neighbour, Roy, into one of them during a hot night of passion, he has trouble keeping everything together. After finding out about the turn, three weeks ago, Roy has been refusing to have any contact with them. In turn Sam has become restless, moody and racked with guilt. It pains him to see the heartbreak his lover is going through and he decides this can't go on any longer. To make matters worse, the moon will be full in three more days, and unless he doesn't do something soon, Roy will go through his first transformation as a werewolf alone. No matter their unusual circumstances, he can't let that happen. Will he be able to finally reach Roy and explain to him why Sam did what he did? And, more importantly, will Roy understand the repercussions of Sam's mistake? A 7000 word story about an Alpha trying to protect the ones he loves, even against all odds. This is book 2 in the Lunar Pack series, and the second story of Roy's story arch.
