

Pedro is a happy 2nd grade boy. He is excited about going to school and having fun with his friends. One boy in school is about to change all that. Jesse looks for every opportunity to make fun of and bully Pedro. How will Pedro handle this? Sooner or later most children are bullied. What tools can we give them to help them deal with this problem? This story can help open the door to discussions, ideas and strategies on how to deal with bullies. The story was born from a personal experience that became a tool to help my children and I think it can help you, help your children. This book contains black and white reproducible pages that can be used in the classroom or at home.
