

This book is a guide to understanding the way men think when they select, categorize and approach a woman. It is a key to understanding the natural and learned male thought process. I wrote this book as if I am teaching my daughter the following: what characteristics to look for in a man, what to avoid. The type of men out there: Sugar Daddies, Gold Diggers, Mommas Boys and many others and why they are the way they are. This book is very frank and to the point. It is not politically correct but rather honest and raw. It answers questions such as: Why do some men give gifts so early? What does it do for him? How do I know when he is cheating? Why did he cheat with a woman who doesn't look half as good as I do? This book will enlighten those looking for the truth. How you can find a good man and sort out the garbage. I also teach you what men look for when they want a keeper.
